BARGAINS IN CANNAS.

We offer for November and December, previous to winter storage, on account of lack of room, strong, dormant roots of the following well known and valuable Cannas, of which we hold large stocks, at greatly reduced prices. Now is the time to buy your Cannas, as they will not come back for many years, and advantage should be taken immediately of these unusually low prices, as they will only hold good until January 1st, and these low prices are made as an inducement for our customers to purchase at this time, and we believe that many will avail themselves of our offer, which is a very advantage—one. Prices will materially advance in the spring, and a decided saving can be made by purchasing at this time, as well as ensuring a stock of the kinds wanted. Buy at once before stocks are depleted, and so secure what you want and at a great saving in cost.

Price, strong dormant roots, $2.00 per doz.; $15.00 per 100.
